THE PURPOSE OF THIS BOOKLET

We are putting these booklets together on our ancestors, not for the purpose of aiding in any genealogical research, although there might be that possibility for some readers. We are not making an effort to include all the names, dates, and places we might discover if we searched. We do not want to take that much time because of the magnitude of our task.

Our intention is to preserve the life stories of our ancestors as completely as we can. The family traditions, anecdotes, and accomplishments that might be lost to our posterity if we don't record them. There are also mementoes, certificates, photographs, especially photographs, that might be forever lost if we don't find a way to share them. This is our effort to do so.

We feel it is not an accident that so many family records have ended up in our hands from both sides of our families. We feel we have them because we will take care of them and share them. We are getting old and we realize that if we die without doing something about these family treasures, they will probably not be preserved for future generations. We're not sure how to share them but preparing these books and booklets is at least the first step. Our children or grandchildren may have to take it from there and we trust that they will.

The Life Story of Isaac Long & His Three Wives

Isaac Long's Parents -- His parents, Henry Long, and his wife, Mary (we do not know her last name), were married in North Carolina about 1784. About half of their 14 children were probably born there, in Orange County, before they moved to Claiborne County, Tennessee, it was said, about 1800. he had 10 brothers and 3 sisters. we do not know how many lived to maturity but there are death dates or approximated death dates for 9 of the 14. The family then relocated to Morgan County, Illinois, where they remained.

Morrison Cemetery -- The parents and some of the children are buried in Morrison Cemetery, there in Morgan County, Illinois. This cemetery is not only badly neglected and grown over, it was vandalized. The cemetery was evidently plowed under. Some of the stones were broken up; many were piled up. An effort was made to restore the cemetery but it was still overgrown. It is in a farmer's field, which makes it difficult to access to maintain.

Parents' Birthplace -- Family sources give Loudoun, Virginia for the birthplace of Henry and North Carolina for Mary. However, the Federal Census gives the birthplace for both of them as Prussia.

The Will of Henry Long

Doesn't Name All The Heirs -- Henry's will is interesting and thoughtful. All heirs are considered, though unfortunately, not all by name. he names his son, Nicholas, and his wife, Mary. The relationships of John Long and W. H. Long are not given but are probably his sons John and William.

Content Of The Will -- In the name of God, Amen. I Henry Long of the County of Morgan and State of Illinois, being of sound and perfect mind and memory (blessed be God) do this 26th day of January in the year of our Lord, 1846, make and publish this my last Will and Testament in manner as follows.

Farm To Nicholas -- First, I give unto my son, Nicholas Long, my farm consisting of 208 acres according to my deeds. Let there be more or less. By Nicholas keeping myself and wife, furnish wood and feed for the cows and to pay $550.00 at the end of 5 years from this date, without interest or rent till that time. And if I, Henry Long, live 6 years, then I reserve to myself the right to alter my will or not, just as I please. But if I die, he is to keep Mary Long as long as she lives, free of charge for and in consideration of my willing him the farm.

Nicholas to Care For Parents -- The said Nicholas is to give his obligation to keep one or both of us as the case may be, and to pay $550 to be equal divided among the balance of the heirs except Nicholas, as he is not to have any of this sum of money. When paid to the Executor is to be divided amongst the balance. [Nicholas is one of the younger children.]

Executor -- I hereby appoint John Long my Executor of this my last Will and Testament. In witness whereof I, Henry Long, have to this last Will and Testament set my hand and affixed my seal the year and date written above. [John Long is an older child.]

Witnesses -- In the presence of W. H. Long and Nicholas Long." [W. H. Long could be his son, William.]

Isaac's First Wife, Elizabeth Greene

Photographs -- Unfortunately we have no photographs of Isaac's first two wives, Elizabeth Greene and Sarah James. There is, however, a lovely portrait of Sarah's parents.

Elizabeth and Isaac Were Young At Marriage -- Marriage records in Morgan County, Illinois show a marriage between Isaac Long, age 19 and Elizabeth Greene, aged 16 years, 11 months. Since they were both under age, their fathers had to sign for them, a blessing when doing genealogy. His parents we knew, Hers, we did not. Her father was Reynolds Greene and her mother, from other sources, was Frances Hall. Elizabeth was born on 21 Jun 1818, in Alabama. By the time Elizabeth was married in 1834, the Greene Family had also moved to Morgan County, Illinois. This marriage took place on 23 May 1834, and was performed by D. Waldo, A Justice of the Peace.

Elizabeth's Siblings -- We have sparse information on Elizabeth's birth family. One source we believe to be accurate [though we've mislaid the source]. Including Elizabeth, there were eight children, six girls and two boys: Nancy (b. 22 Nov 1807), Margaret (b. 21 Nov 1809), William (b. 10 Oct 1812), Mary Ellen (b. 18 Apr 1816), Elizabeth (b. 21 Jun 1818), Matthew C. (b. 7 Aug 1820), Martha Caroline (b. 15 Nov 1822) and Sarah Frances (b. 7 Apr 1825).

Isaac and Elizabeth Left Illinois -- Their first two children were born in Illinois and then the family relocated to Van Buren County, Iowa. It would seem that the probable reason would have been for the opportunity to purchase land. The Federal Census and Isaac's Will give the information that Isaac was a farmer. There six more children joined the family for a total of eight. There were three boys: William M., Hosea H., and George M., and five girls: Mary Y., Sarah N., Martha L., Elizabeth Ann, and Miranda.

Elizabeth's Death – Elizabeth passed away on 3 April 1858 when her youngest child was only 10 years old. We can find no mention of the cause of her death. She was only 40 years old still had a family to raise. She is buried in Spencer Cemetery, Van Buren County, Iowa.

Isaac's Second Family

Sarah Ursula James – Almost a year after his first wife died, Isaac married our ancestor, Sarah James. For her, it was her first marriage, or at least we believe that to be the case. They were married in Jefferson County, Iowa on the 27th of March, 1859. She, having been born on January 18th, 1832, would have been 27 years of age.

Her Parents – Sarah's mother, Sally Clarke Wells, was from Athens, Ohio. Her father, Francis Puglsey James, was from York, Co., Maine. Because Sarah's father's mother was Mary Pugsley, a Pugsley genealogy booklet was handed down through the family and we are indebted to it for the record of Sarah's birth family.

The Pugsley and Long Descendency Booklets – The Long booklet has no obvious connection with our Longs. The Puglsey one does, however. Both are included in the back of this effort. They are not something we can dispose of as they may yet prove valuable to our descendants. This effort seems the most logical place to preserve both of them.

The Photograph of Sarah's Parents, Sally Clarke Wells, and Francis Pugsley James – As mentioned earlier, we have no pictures of either Elizabeth Greene or Sarah James. However, we feel very fortunate to have the likenesses of Sarah's parents.

Sarah's Siblings – Sarah was the second child of the family of 9 girls and 2 boys. Her brother, Elisha John, lived only 20 years. Joseph Orin lived only one day. Her sisters were: Mary Patience, Hannah Anne, Anna Marie, Marcia Frances, Eunice Margaret, Susan Almira, Esther Jane, and Sylvia Ellen

Sarah and Isaac's Family

Thirteen Children In All – Isaac had a total of 13 children with his two wives, Elizabeth and Sarah. Not many mementoes have been saved so it is with regret that we know little about these two mothers and many of the children. It seems certain that Sarah was a good step-mother to Elizabeth's young children.

Five Children With Sarah – Five children were born to this marriage including our ancestor, Clark Varnum Long, who was their youngest child. Sarah died on July 6th, 1877. She was 45 years of age and is also buried in Spencer Cemetery. Clarke was 8 ½ years old and Eunice Sidella (Della) only 12. Francis O. (Or Frank) would have been 16. The names of the other children were Sarintha (Sintha) Cerutha and Marsha (Marcy). Sarah must have named Eunice after her own sister, Eunice. Isaac still had children at home when he was widowed the second time. All of them were born in Jefferson County, Iowa.

Motherless Children – Just as Sarah had raised children from her husband's orphaned young children, she now was leaving behind children, she now was leaving behind children who also needed a mother.

Isaac's Third Wife

Savilla Ann Lee – Isaac's third wife was Savilla Ann Lee and she was the step-mother Clark remembered so fondly that he named his daughter (Savilla Evelyn Long, our ancestor) after her. Se was born in Iowa in 1854 so she was 40 years younger than Isaac. Perhaps he was tired of having his wives die on him. It seems probable that she was a sister to his son-in-law, Joshua Lee, who was married to his daughter, Sarintha. No children were born to this third marriage.

Marriage Date – You would think, this being the most recent, that we would have a marriage date for Isaac and Savilla. But we do not. We do know it was between July, 1877 when Isaac was widowed, and the 1880 Federal Census, where she was identified as his wife.

1880 Federal Census – They were living in Round Prairie Township, Jefferson County, Iowa. It showed: Iaac Long, farmer, aged 66, born in Tennessee. Anna (Savilla Ann), his wife, aged 26, born in Iowa; Della, daughter, aged 14, born in Iowa, and Clark, son, aged 12 born in Iowa.

Family Photograph, this Time Period

The 18890 Census, Plus Francis O. (Frank). In the
right are Frank, Della and Clark .

This photo is very valuable to us because it gives such a clear likeness of Isaac, and at least one of his three wives.

Relationship With Step-Mother – Evidently Savilla was well liked by Isaac's children, in spite of her youth. Clark always spoke fondly of her to his children, and as mentioned earlier, even named his daughter after her. A few family letters survive that also indicate a closeness between Savilla and the children not much younger than her.

Mementos – Not many family mementoes have been saved and passed down by the Long Family and saved for the enjoyment of future generations. Therefore, we are all the more grateful for that which we have. As follows:

Half Brothers and Wives – We have wondered how close the children from Isaac's two families were to each other. Therefore, this picture of George Long (bottom left) from the first family and Frank Long (bottom right) from the second family is reassuring. Behind them are their wives, Mary P. (George's wife) and Annie Jones (Frank's wife).

Letter from Della

Clark's Daughter Wrote Her Mother's Sister – It is nice to know Sarah's grandchildren kept in touch with her family although they were not living near each other. Della's letter reads as follows:

Tingley, Ringgold Co., Iowa

Saturday, May 17

Dear Aunt,

I will try and answer your most kind and welcome letter I received today. I was glad to hear from you but sorry to hear of your sickness. We are all well at present and hope this will find you the same. We moved this spring and we don't go to Mt. Ayr as often as we did. So I did not get your letter as soon as you expected I would.

Roy and Vick Jones rented a big farm together this year and me and Grandma Jones live in the same house. There are nine rooms in the house and we live in separate rooms. We have 10 cows and 5 horses. I have over 100 little chickens and 4 dozen old hens. I have most of my garden made.

I don't have time to write much this time. My little girl will be 2 years in July. Tell Aunt Eunice to write to me. Where does Millie live now? I did not know Ella was married before. You write soon and tell the girls to write and direct to Tingley. We get our mail there now. And tell that lawyer to send his letters there. It will be lots of help to me to get that money for we need it, you may know. I will close.

My love to all, from

Della Russell. Goodby to her Aunt Marcia James"

[Grammar and punctuation corrected. The lawyer and money she referred to probably had to do with inheritance from her father, Isaac. His third wife had passed away and although she had announced her intention to leave everything to the children, her 2nd husband evidently received it and the children were trying to contest that, apparently without success.]

Letter Written by Step Mother

Evidence of Her Affection – This letter was written to Clark, March 9, 1918.

"Dear Son and Daughter,

I will write a few lines. I was glad to hear from you all one more time. We are not well. Rheumatism in my feet so bad I can't go out some of the time. We had some very cold weather, 32 degrees below zero yesterday. It cleared up and the sun came out. It looks nice today. There was about six inches of snow on the ground. Mr. Jenkins hasn't got all the corn gathered yet. He got sick. I had about a thousand bushels this year. Corn is 75 cents a bushel.

I haven't rented yet this year. I wish you had come on the old place. I can't get around and see after the place. I wouldn't let Mr. Jenkins have the place any more. He has had it for 3 years. I am a going to write to F. O. Long [Clark's brother]. I heard Della is dead but I don't think so. I haven't heard from Della for a long time.

I can't work to make any money anymore. I have to rent the place so as to get my living. I don't look to Mr. Layton [her husband] for any money no more than if he was not there. He don't spend a penny for me. I have to keep him. Instead of him keeping me, it goes the other way. He is the stingiest man I ever saw. I have made our living with my chickens ever since we've been married.

But I have got a little money put up for rainy days. He has got two hundred dollars of my money. I have got fourteen hundred out on interest besides what he has got.

I just heard Lillie James is dead. Annie Norine is in Ottumwa. She came there in the winter. I will close for this time. I got the cards you sent. They look nice. Write soon and often.

Love to all from

S. A. Layton

Picnic in the Woods

Priceless Photo – This wonderful photograph certainly seems unusual for its day. At first we only noticed the men in the center but closer scrutiny revealed figures to the left and the right. The picture was labeled "Picnic in the Woods." The men were identified as Frank Long, LeRoy Russell (Della's husband), Clark Long, and the old man in the center back, Isaac Long, the father. The women on the left, with food in their hands are almost certainly Della and the step mother, Savilla. But there's another figure on the far right, see the long gun barrel? We believe it is probably George Long, one of the younger men from Isaac's first family.

No More Details on Lives of These Progenitors – And although they seem sparse, we are happy to know as much as we do. We can imagine Isaac's sorrow at the loss of his two wives and his enjoyment of his large family. His death certificate reveals that he died of paralysis, so we can also imagine the suffering and difficulty of his last days.

Isaac's Death and Burial – Isaac lived until he was past the age of 84 years and died on December 16, 1898. He is buried in Spencer Cemetery in Van Buren County, Iowa, as are all three of his wives. Savilla, however, remarried, so her last name was then Layton. This was not a happy marriage and she is said to be buried beside Isaac. We hope someone in the family will visit that cemetery to obtain pictures of the tombstones.

(O) THE LONG COAT OF ARMS

A Coat of Arms is an emblem which is displayed by titled persons, persons of royal blood, and their descendants.

Coats of Arms were originally used for purposes of identification and recognition on the field of battle as well as in civil life.

It is claimed by some writers that Coats of Arms, in a crude form, were used by Noah's sons after the flood. There are records of other Coats of Arms, in one crude form or another, at different periods of ancient history. Heraldry, however, as we know it today, did not become of much importance until soon after the invasion of England by William the Conqueror, A. D. 1066. Heraldry became of general interest at about the time of the Crusades.

The Long Coat of Arms shown on the cover of this volume has been in use by the Long Families for many centuries. It was used by the Long family of Wraxall, Wiltshire, which goes back to JOHN LONG, who died A. D. 1597. (See Chapter (C)—A101.)

This Coat of Arms is described in references 2, 4 and 6, and in other reliable works on heraldry (in heraldic parlance) as follows:

Arms: Sa. within two flaunches and semee of cross-crosslets or, a lion rampant argent.

Crest: A lion's head arg., erased or, holding in the mouth a dexter hand erased gu.

Motto: Pieux Quoique Preux. (Pious though valiant.)

Sir Bernard Burke, of Heralds College, London, said, "Heraldry is prized by all who can show honorable ancestry or wish to found honorable families."

Many Americans are today displaying Coats of Arms which have been adopted by their progenitors in Europe.

LONG

BATTLE HYMN OF THE LONGS

TUNE: Battle Hymn of the Republic

There's something strong and mighty in a good old family name,
And the name of Long shines very high upon the scroll of fame,
For those who bear the name of Long pursue a lofty aim;
The Clan goes marching on!

CHORUS: Glory to our Grand Old Family—
Longs of Wrexall and Rood Ashton,
Pottorne, Bromley Hill, in Wiltshire,
And Longs of U. S. A.

Our ancient cherishes traditions of the past;
With the world's great onward movements they have all their fortunes cast;
And when they pledge their honor they are loyal to the last.
The Clan goes marching on!

The Clan of Long is virile as our fathers were of old;
Each century their numbers have increased a hundred fold;
Of all the world's great families our family is pure gold.
The Clan goes marching on!

We have our dukes and peasants, common folk and blue-bloods too;
We greet each other with a smile and "Cousin, Howdy-do!"
This goes with all Long cousins and it goes with me and you.
The Clan goes marching on!

The Longs they all are loyal to the good old U. S. A.
They love the flag of freedom and will follow it for aye.
The Longs all do their duty and they never run away.
The Clan goes marching on!

To every corner of our land we sound the bugle call;
Three hundred thousand kinsmen hear and answer one and all.
We can hear the cousins tramping like Niagara's waterfall.
The Clan goes marching on!

If you claim the blood of Long come join the chorus of the Clan,
In our Records and Reunions, all according to our plan;
The name to highest honor boost it every way you can.
The Clan goes marching on!

(A) INTRODUCTION

THE Long family has been prominent in the British Empire and in America, its members having played important rôles in war and in peace. Family pride is a commendable trait and should be cultivated. All Longs have just cause to be proud of their family history and traditions. One authority says, regarding the name Long: "We find such names as Long and Short (and Shorter) but we cannot predicate that Long or Short are not contractions of some place-names, such as Longacre and Shortridge. Norman-French—De Longa; De Longues. 'Long' and 'Lang' represent a similar difference of pronunciation."

Unless otherwise plainly shown, the persons in this volume whose names are accompanied by three figures are sons or daughters of the immediately preceding persons bearing immediately preceding consecutive numbers. All persons in each group, bearing the same letter as a part of their respective numbers are directly related. The generations of the descendants of those bearing numbers of three figures are represented as follows:

Generations.....1st	2nd	3rd	4th	5th
Symbols.....(1), etc.	(A), etc.	(a), etc.	1, etc.	A, etc.
Generations.....6th	7th	8th	9th	10th
Symbols.....a, etc.	(1), etc.	(i), etc.	I, etc.	i, etc.

Abbreviations: ad, address; b, born; ch, children; coll, college; d, died; d.y., died young; d.w.i., died without issue; dau, daughter; grad., graduate; l, lives, lived; m, married, moved; s, son; univ., university.

The data in this volume are gathered from reliable sources at great expense. Desiring further information are advised to consult volumes mentioned in list of references given in the back of this volume. The writer and his associates will be glad to give their co-operation to any members of the family who may be interested in having a complete genealogy of the family published. Many old American families have formed Associations and some of them hold annual reunions. Local reunions have been held by various branches of the Long family from time to time. There is some interest in the forming of a National Long Family Association and the holding of a National Reunion. Information regarding the Long Coat of Arms will be found in Chapter (O).

Attention is also invited to Chapter (O).

The compiler hopes that, in producing this volume he is bringing to the Long Family of the world information which will be of interest and value to them, and that he is rendering an important service to the public.

- (D) PROMINENT BRITISH LONGS, PAST GENERATIONS
- Following are some of the prominent Longs in the British Empire, past generations:

LADY CATHARINE LONG (d. 1867), novelist and religious writer: dau. of Horatio Walpole, third Earl of Oxford: m. Henry-Lawes L——, Esq., of Hampton Lodge, Surrey, 1822; she engaged in much literary work, chiefly in the way of religious fiction, and published some pieces of sacred music.

CHARLES, BARON FARNBOROUGH (1761–1838), politician: s. Beeston L—— of Casheslton, Surrey, a member of a well-known firm of West India merchants, Drake & Long; his father's family, settled originally in Wiltshire, had been connected with Jamaica since Charles Long's great-grandfather, Samuel, had been made, on the request of Jamaica, secretary to the Jamaica commissioners; entered at Emmanuel College, Cambridge, 1788; made an honorary LL.D., 1835; entered parliament in 1789, as member for Rye, and having held that seat till 1796, was returned for Midhurst, and in 1802 for Wendover; in 1806 he came in for Haslemere and held that seat until his elevation to the peerage; appointed joint secretary to the treasury, 1791; lord commissioner of the treasury, 1804; sworn of the Irish privy council; secretary of state for Ireland, 1806, and sworn of the Irish privy council; appointed joint paymaster-general, 1810; despatched to France in 1817 as a commissioner to settle the accounts connected with the army of occupation; created a peer, 1826; fellow of the Royal Society, 1792, and of the Society of Antiquaries, 1812; trustee of the British Museum, 1812, also chairman of the National Gallery, deputy president of the British Institute and chairman of the committee for inspection of national monuments; being a recognized judge of pictures and architecture, and a personal friend of both George III and George IV, he assisted them with his taste in the decoration of several of the royal palaces.

CHARLES EDWARD (1796–1861), genealogist and antiquary: b. at Benham Park, Berkshire; s. Charles Beckford L—— of Langley Hall; Edward L——, the historian of Jamaica, was his grandfather; educated at Harrow School and Trinity College, Cambridge, where he gained a declamation prize, and in July 1818 won the chancellor's gold medal for English verse; he materially assisted Dr. Butler in his biographical notes to the lists of Harrow scholars; during many years he was a correspondent of the Gentleman's Magazine, and the leading antiquarian periodicals; with the assistance of Sir Charles-George Young, Garter, Long compiled in 1845 a volume called "Royal Descents; a genealogical List of the several Persons entitled to quarter the Arms of the Royal Houses of England"; he made "Genealogical Collections of Jamaica Families", which he presented to the British Museum, and he also gave to the Museum many valuable documents relating to Jamaica.

EDWARD (1734–1815), author: b. Roselyon St. Blazey, Cornwall; s. Samuel L—— of Longville, Jamaica, Tredudwell in Cornwall and Queen Square, Bloomsbury, London; was entered at Gray's Inn, 1753, went to Jamaica on his father's death and filled the post of private secretary to Sir Henry Moore, baronet, the then lieutenant-governor, who had married his sister; in a short time he was promoted to judge of the vice-admiralty court in Jamaica; his chief work was the "History of Jamaica"; his son, Charles Edward L——, gave it to the British Museum.

EDWIN LONGSDEN (1829–1891), painter and royal academician: b. Bath; s. of E. Long, an artist; studied in the British Museum, London; making the acquaintance of John Philip, R. A., he accompanied that artist to Spain, where they spent much time; his first important pictures were "The Suppliers" (1872) and "The Babylonian Marriage Market", both subsequently purchased by Thomas Holloway; elected associate of the Royal Academy, 1876, and an academician in 1881; his "Diana and Christ" (1881) greatly enhanced his reputation; he exhibited his next pictures in his own gallery in Bond Street and there, in 1883, and following years, his "Anno Domini" and "Zeuxis at Crotona" met with great success; besides the "Edwin Long" Gallery in Old Bond Street, a number of his pictures were collected together after his death and formed the nucleus of a gallery of Christian art, his best portrait was of Cardinal Manning.

GEORGE (1780–1868), police magistrate: s. Joseph L—— of Shopwick, Sussex; admitted to Gray's Inn, 1806, and called to the bar, 1811; appointed magistrate at Great Marlborough Street police court, 1839.

GEORGE (1800–1879), classical scholar: s. James L——; b. Poulton, Lancashire; graduated Trinity College, 1822, B. A., as a wrangler and senior chancellor's medallist; in 1823 he was members' prizeman, and gained a fellowship over the heads of Macaulay and Malden; chosen professor of ancient languages in the Univ. of Virginia at Charlottesville, Virginia, 1824; Thomas Jefferson (the President of the United States) was rector and Long was his frequent guest; returned to England after four years and accepted professorship of Greek in the Univ. of London (afterwards Univ. College); became editor of Quarterly Journal of Education, published by the Society for the Diffusion of Useful Knowledge, of whose committee Long was a most active member; one of the founders in 1830 of the Royal Geographical Society and was for many years a member of council, and honorary secretary from 1846–48; he contributed to geographical papers, he also edited and contributed to the Society's Biographical Dictionary; in 1842 he became professor of Latin in University College; resigned the chair in 1846 and lectured on jurisprudence and civil law in the Inner Temple; he wrote all the articles on Roman law for Smith's Dictionary of Greek and Roman Antiquities (1842); established and edited the Bibliotheca Classica, 1851–8; published his admirable translation of Marcus Aurelius with the title, "Thoughts of the Emperor M. Aurelius Antoninus."

SIR JAMES (1617–1692), royalist: s. Sir Walter L—— of Draycot Ceme, Wiltshire; b. South Wraxhall, Wiltshire; it appears that he entered the royal army and is probably the Captain Long who served in Sir Thomas Glenham's regiment at the beginning of the Civil War; appointed sheriff of Wiltshire in the king's interest, 1644; early in 1645 he escorted the Prince of Wales to Bristol and was leisurely returning eastwards when he was overtaken by a superior force of parliamentarians under Waller and Cromwell at Devizes; he fell rapidly back towards Bath, hotly pursued by Waller; near Potterne he was intercepted by Cromwell, and the high thick-set hedges prevented his escape; he was captured but was soon exchanged; he was something of an antiquary, and in a letter to Aubrey, preserved in the Bodleian Library, dated 1688, there is an interesting description by Long of a number of Roman coins found at Heddington, Wiltshire.

JAMES (1814-1887), missionary; ordained priest in the Church of England, 1840, and about 1846 went to India as a missionary in the service of the Church Missionary Society, being stationed at Thakurpukur, a village in the district of the Twenty-four Parganas, near Calcutta; as he had spent some part of his early life in Russia, he was well known at the Russian court, and kept up his connections there; in his writings he dwelt on the similarity between the social system and folklore of that country and India; he was a member of the Bengal Asiatic Society and a fellow of the Royal Geographical Society.

JOHN (1548-1589), archbishop of Armagh; b. London; educated at Eton; admitted a scholar, King's College, Cambridge, 1564; promoted to the see of Armagh and primacy of all Ireland, 1584; made a member of the privy council in Ireland, 1586.

JOHN ST. JOHN (1798-1854), empiric; s. John L—— of Newcastle, County Limerick; attended the Dublin school of design, 1816; in 1822 he went to London, where he exchanged art for medicine.

SIR LISLEBONE (1613-1659), speaker of the House of Commons: s. William L—— of Stratton, Somerset; graduated B. A., from Magdalen Hall, Oxford, 1630-31, and was called to the bar at Gray's Inn, 1640; attained distinction as a lawyer and in 1656 became recorder of London, a master of requests, and treasurer of Lincoln's Inn; knighted by Cromwell, 1655; member of parliament in House of Commons for Wells, and for Somerset.

SIR ROBERT (d. 1673), auditor of the exchequer: s. Sir Walter L—— of Wrexhall and Draycot in Wiltshire; member of parliament for Devizes, 1625, for Mithurst, Sussex, 1640, and for Boroughbridge, Yorkshire, 1661; held office of surveyor of the queen's lands; in 1644 he became secretary of the council for the Prince of Wales; at the Restoration he was made a baronet, 1660; chancellor of the exchequer, 1660-7; made auditor of the exchequer, 1662; on Sept. 22, 1670, Charles II granted him a long lease of the Great Park, Great Park Meadow, and a house called Worcester House, all at Nonsuch, Surrey; became a privy councillor, 1672; was buried in Westminster Abbey.

ROBERT BALLARD (1771-1825), lieutenant-general; s. Edward L——, the historian of Jamaica; b. Seale, Surrey; educated at Harrow School and the University of Göttingen; following are some of his engagements: in Flanders with the Duke of York, 1793-4; in the winter retreat to Germany, 1794-5, deputy adjutant-general to General Sir George Don; at Portsmouth as brigade-major and aide-de-camp to General Sir William Pitt; in Ireland, 1798, in command of mounted riflemen under General (Sir John) Moore in Wexford; at Weymouth in command of the York hussars, a very fine corps of cavalry; in Spain, 1808, as colonel of the staff; at Corunna, 1809, as adjutant-general to Lord Chatham at Walcheren, 1809; with Wellington at Portugal, 1810, with General William Carr Beresford in the affairs of Campo Maior and Los Santos; with Sir Rowland Hill in the operations of 1811-12; commanded a brigade of light dragoons at the battle of Vittoria (gold medal) and in Hill's operations in the Pyrenees and the investment of Pampeluna; after his return home he became a major-general in 1811 and lieutenant-general in 1821.

ROGER (1680-1770), divine and astronomer: b. Croxton Park, Norfolk; educated at the public school of Norwich; entered Pembroke Hall, Cambridge, 1696, graduated B. A. in 1700, was elected a fellow of his college, 1703, and proceeded M. A., 1704; in the same year he resigned his fellowship, having been entered as a fellow-commoner at Emmanuel College, where he resided as private tutor to Sir Wolston Dixie; returned later to Pembroke Hall and read lectures on astronomy there for many years; as tripos orator in 1714, he delivered a "music speech" in Latin prose alternating with English verse, which was several times reprinted; in 1728, probably on the occasion of George II's visit to Cambridge, a degree of D.D. was conferred upon him, and being then vicar of Cherry Hinton in Cambridgeshire, he published a commencement sermon on "The Blessedness of Believing"; elected master of Pembroke Hall, 1733, and vice-chancellor of the university; in 1750 he was chosen to be the first occupant of the Lowndean chair of astronomy and geometry, and in 1751 he exchanged the rectory of Overton Waterville in Huntingdonshire, to which he had been presented many years previously by his college, for that of Bradwell-near-the-Sea in Essex; he erected in 1765 in one of the courts of Pembroke Hall, a hollow revolving sphere, eighteen feet in diameter, representing on its inner surface the apparent movements of the heavenly bodies; thirty spectators could be accommodated within it; he published the first volume of an important work on astronomy in 1742 and a second instalment in 1764; he was nominated, for the second time, vice-chancellor of the university, 1769; elected a fellow of the Royal Society, 1729, and subsequently joined the Spalding Society.

SAWVEL (1638-1685), speaker of the House of Assembly at Jamaica: s. Timothy L—— (1610-1691); he served as lieutenant in Colonel Edward D'Oyley's regiment, in the expedition, under Penn and Venables, which conquered Jamaica in 1655 and was appointed secretary to Cromwell's commissioners; he received large grants of land in Jamaica and by 1661 was clerk of the House of Assembly; in 1671 he was acting as judge for the parishes of Clarendon and St. Elizabeth; he was elected to the Assembly as member for Clarendon, 1672, having then acquired the rank of captain, and was chosen speaker; in 1674 he was returned member for St. Katherine and reappointed speaker; on Aug. 14, 1674, being then colonel, he was sworn of the council and appointed chief justice; he was buried in the cathedral in St. Katherine's parish.

THOMAS (1621-1707), divine: s. "Mr. Richard Lonng"; b. Exeter; he became a servitor of Exeter College, Oxford, and graduated B. A., 1642; became in 1652 vicar of St. Lawrence Clynst, near Exeter, and, being a staunch churchman and royalist, he lay under a long sequestration during the troubles, upholding the interests of the king and the church by constant preaching and writing; at the Restoration he was created B. D. of Oxford, by royal mandate, on September 20, 1660, and prebendary of Exeter Cathedral on January 18, 1660-1661; in 1684 he declined Sancroft's offer of the bishopric of Bristol on account, it is said, of his age and large family; he was proctor for the clergy of his diocese (Exeter) in convocation in 1689, in 1695 and 1694; he was well read in both ancient and modern literature and was a voluminous controversial writer; he was firmly persuaded that Charles I was the author of the "Eiken Basilike", and in support of this view took part in the war of pamphlets which followed the publication of Walker's "True Account of the Author," in 1692; he wrote many works on religion.

WILLIAM (1817-1886), antiquary: s. Walter L—— of Conhampton, Hampshire; his mother was Lady Mary, eldest daughter of William Carnegie, seventh Earl of Northesk; he matriculated from Balliol College, Oxford, 1835, graduated B. A. in 1839, and proceeded M. A. in 1844; he was a justice of the peace for Somerset, an F. S. A., and passed his life as a country gentleman and a local antiquary.

(H) AMERICAN LONG FAMILIES

One branch of the Long family emigrated from the Prieuxwof, France, in 1400. It is well known that the Longs were at the defense of Londonderry. They closed the gates, December 1688, in face of King James' Army until August 1689. Henry Long was Mayor of Londonderry shortly after the siege. For political reasons the Longs, with others, were dispossessed of their property, the king giving same to his favorites along with titles of nobility. Those newly made lords were generally absentees who spent their time in London and on the Continent. As years passed the Longs became again prosperous. The agent of the absentees who spent their time away called to collect the rent. "On hospitable thoughts intent," a fine dinner was served to which he was invited. At the close of the meal, he arose and said, "You seem to be prosperous in every way and you can afford to have silver on your table (which was rare in those days) so your rent will be increased." The reply was, "No, we will go to America." Samuel, James, and Andrew sailed for America and settled in Cumberland Valley, Pennsylvania. Samuel, the forefather of Crawford Long, the discoverer of ether as an anesthetic, went to Georgia in 1788.

The first descendants of the Longs were John and Jennie Long who came from Ireland in 1726. They had issue: John, Mary, James, Elizabeth, and David. John Long married Mary Taft and had issue: John (III): b. Sept. 1747; James: b. June 27, 1749; Betsy: b. Dec. 11, 1750; Anna: b. June 14, 1752; Matthew: b. May 8, 1756; Sarah: b. April 2, 1754; Robert: b. Oct. 14, 1759; David: b. August 10, 1761; Aaron: b. Sept. 18, 1760; Mary: b. Aug. 6, 1766; Abner: b. Sept. 28, 1767; Reuben: b. Sept. 14, 1769.

David Long (1st) stated the Longs emigrated from Scotland. John and Jenny Long and sons, John and David, landed at Taunton, Mass. A copy of David's will dated Feb. 10, 1784, gives his children as David, Stephen, William, and John, also Martha, Jemima, Anna, and Sarah; and speaks of John as a minor. He married Martha Woodward, Dec. 17, 1747.

Abner Long, seventh son, eleventh child of John II and Mary Taft Long, born 1767, married, 1788, Diana Shepherd (born 1771). Had issue:

- (1) James: b. 1795.
- (2) Abner: b. 1796; d. 1849.
- (3) Lewis: b. 1801: issue.
 - (A) Polly: b. 1803; d. 1822.
 - (B) Diana: b. 1804; d. 1864.

To secure an estimate of the "Long population" of the United States, we figure as follows:

Only about half the names were taken from each directory consulted.....	2	(a) Multiply by
Half of the Longs reside in the rural districts or in small towns having no printed directories which were available to us.....	2
There are an average of more than four persons in each American family.....	4
Since Long daughters marry and have as many descendants as the Long sons, there are as many descendants of "other names" as there are bearing the name Long, though it is much easier to locate the latter..... 2

By multiplying each figure of column (a) into the preceding figure, we have a total of..... 32

Conservative estimate of the Long population of the United States, one-half of whom bear the name Long and one-half of whom bear other names..... 333,952

The estimated Long population of any of the states may be obtained by multiplying the figures shown by 32. There are Longs in every state of the Union. The Long population of the British Empire is probably equal to that in the United States.

(M) RELIGIONS OF THE LONGS

For several centuries nearly all the Longs lived in England, Scotland and Ireland. Most of the Scotch and, likewise, the Longs were and are of the Presbyterian faith.

There are a few Longs of the Catholic faith in the British Isles, but it is estimated that their number does not exceed two per cent of the entire Long population.

The Longs who came from the British Isles to America continued in the faith of their fathers, for the most part, though their descendants in this country today will be found in the memberships of practically all the various churches. It is estimated that of all the Longs in America who are church members, at least ninety-seven per cent are of the Protestant faith.

Biographical sketches of Longs appear in WHO'S WHO IN AMERICA. Their religious faiths are shown as follows: BAPTIST, 2; EPISCOPAL, 2; CATHOLIC, 0; PRESBYTERIAN, 4; CONGREGATIONALIST, 1; METHODIST, 1; OTHER, 4; RELIGION NOT STATED, 15; TOTAL, 29.

(O) THE LONG COAT OF ARMS

A Coat of Arms is an emblem which is displayed by titled persons, persons of royal blood, and their descendants.

Coats of Arms were originally used for purposes of identification and recognition on the field of battle as well as in civil life.

It is claimed by some writers that Coats of Arms, in a crude form, were used by Noah's sons after the flood. There are records of other Coats of Arms, in one crude form or another, at different periods of ancient history. Heraldry, however, as we know it today, did not become of much importance until soon after the invasion of England by William the Conqueror, A. D. 1066. Heraldry became of general interest at about the time of the Crusades.

The Long Coat of Arms shown on the cover of this volume has been in use by the Long Families for many centuries. It was used by the Long family of Wrexall, Wiltshire, which goes back to JOHN LONG, who died A. D. 1597. (See Chapter (C)—A101.)

This Coat of Arms is described in references 2, 4 and 6, and in other reliable works on heraldry (in heraldic parlance) as follows:

Arms: Sa. within two flanches and sence of cross-croislets or, a lion rampant argent.

Crest: A lion's head arg., erased or, holding in the mouth a dexter hand erased gu.

Motto: Pieux Quoique Preux. (Pious though valiant.)

Sir Bernard Burke, of Heralds College, London, said, "Heraldry is prized by all who can show honorable ancestry or wish to found honorable families."

Many Americans are today displaying Coats of Arms which have been adopted by their progenitors in Europe.

Besides its Family significance the Long Coat of Arms makes an excellent mural decoration and inspires the admiration and commendation of all who see it.

Being a member of the Long family, it is quite appropriate that you should display this Coat of Arms, in proper colors, on the wall of your home or office, and use it on your stationery. This would be visible testimony to your friends and to the world of your justifiable pride in your family history, traditions and standards.
